VISITORS

Welcome! We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ. We invite all who believe in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

“YES!”

We had two children with Strep throat on Monday and Tuesday. This changes life. I stayed home with the baby and took care of the kids. In short, I played Mr. Mom, but at length I was providing kids with probiotics, anti-nausea, antibiotics, and fluids. The little baby Viv never got sick, and I thank God for that. I was also having to play sheriff, because I had to make sure they weren't running around or playing games. They were sick. So where should they be? B – E – D.

Times like that really makes me thankful and helps me realize how much I take normal days for granted. I love when my whole family is healthy. It just makes things so much easier; schedule is normal, wallet is thicker, and people seem happier. Elijah asked me Wednesday morning, “If there was a pill that guaranteed no sickness the rest of your days, but it cost $1,000.00, would you buy it?” I didn't even pause, “Yes!”

“Would you buy it for the whole family?”

“Yes!”

I hope we would all say the same. While one thousand dollars seems like a lot, it is easily overshadowed by the 100s of thousands of dollars an individual will pay in healthcare in a life-time.

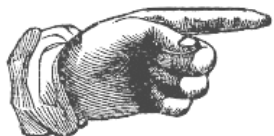

Concerning heaven, if we could afford it, we would pay for it. However, its eternity makes it priceless. Bill Gates could give all his money away to the poor and still not purchase a place in heaven, because the price of admission is too large for any normal person to pay. The price was paid by the blood of the perfect, divine, selfless, and loving Jesus.

Now all that is required, is that a person who wants it says, “Yes!”

- Nathan Keller
