

WELCOME VISITORS! Thank you for joining us today to worship the Lord. If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor's card found on the back of each pew. Your prayer requests may also be made on the flip side of the card. At the close of service, please put your card in the contribution box at the front of the auditorium as you exit. Or you can hand it to any member.

During the service we will celebrate communion. (Sacraments are available on the table in the entry foyer.) This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from the fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus' death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of our hope that God will fulfill his promise of eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

THE PEACE JESUS OFFERS

ALLEN WEBSTER

Continued material from the front page article is House to House Heart to Heart publication. (vol 27, #9)

How does the Bible picture the peace Jesus gives?

CHRISTIANS ARE APPLE TREES IN THE WOODS

Applying a figure from Solomon's song to Christ's bride, the church, paints a comforting picture. It says, "Like an apple tree among the trees of the woods, so is my beloved among the sons" (Song of Solomon 2:3) An apple tree in a wooded area is overshadowed by taller trees that absorb moisture the sunlight. Yet because it is an apple tree, the owner pays attention to it, cultivates it, and cherishes it above other trees. It will not be neglected nor allowed to wither. Christians in society are like apple trees in wooded areas. They might seem non-descript among the rich in the community, the talented at work, the powerful in government, the intelligent in school and the popular at parties, yet God knows their names (Luke 10:20; 2 Timothy 2:19), hears their prayers (1 Peter 3:12), watches over them (Matthew 28:20; Hebrews 13:5), and makes life better for them (John 10:10; Philippians 4:19; James 1:17) They are fruitful—producing what He cherishes (John 15:1-8). Soon their God will publicly praise them (1 Corinthians 4:5)

CHRISTIANS ARE CHICKS UNDER CHRIST'S WINGS

Jesus wanted to gather Jerusalem's citizens together, "As a hen gathers her chicks under her wings" (Matthew 23:37). Although they would not, Christians have gathered under those wings. Psalm 91:4 says, "He shall cover you with his feathers, and under His wings you shall take refuge; His truth shall be your shield and buckler.”

Christians are “preserved in Jesus Christ” (Jude 1:1) “for His heavenly kingdom” (2 Timothy 4:18). Wood that is preserved lasts while untreated lumber rots; fruits that are preserved are still good long after fresh fruit is gone.

Jesus the High Priest saves “to the uttermost” them that come to God by Him (Hebrews 7:25). Jesus the Advocate will present Christians faultless at judgment “with exceeding joy” (Jude 1:24). Jesus the King will say to those on the right, “Come, you blessed of My Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world” (Matthew 25:34). Knowing this lets the peace of God rule in our hearts (Colossians 3:15).

Next Week: (Nov 6) The remaining sections of this article relating to the peace that comes from Jesus.

*CHRISTIANS ARE RESIDENTS OF GOD’S CITY OF REFUGE
CHRISTIANS ARE TRAVELERS IN THE CLEFT OF THE ROCK
CHRISTIANS ARE MEMBERS IN CHRIST’S BODY*

Acts 2:45–47

⁴⁵ They sold their property and possessions and shared the money with those in need. ⁴⁶ They worshiped together at the Temple each day, met in homes for the Lord’s Supper, and shared their meals with great joy and generosity^[a]—⁴⁷ all the while praising God and enjoying the goodwill of all the people. And each day the Lord added to their fellowship those who were being saved.

TODAY

Today is 5th Sunday—Let's celebrate

... or at least share a meal.

There is always plenty of good food for everyone, and the very best dish served at any of our pot-luck meals is the FELLOWSHIP.

Hope you have planned to join in this time of good food, laughs, pleasant conversation and sharing a bit of life together.

NEXT SUNDAY—11/6

Daylight Savings Time Ends

Fall Back 1 hour

It's everyone's favorite (or least favorite) time again.

Don't forget to adjust any clocks that need manual intervention.

On the other hand, if you arrive for worship service an hour early, there are many worthwhile things to think and pray about while you wait.

Also, something to look forward to (or not) ... We will do it all over again beginning March 23, 2023.

AND apparently congress has made the time change permanent beginning in 2023. No more setting the clock back in November. Anyway, that's what I found on-line... by that time, who knows what they will "approve". (sorry, just a little op-ed there)
