WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

Turning the Other Cheek

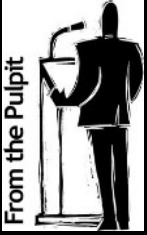

The ability to turn the other cheek and let wrongs go is an attribute that I sure wish I could get a handle on. To be able to be calm and serene and not hold grudges is truly a wonderful gift that so many of us would do well to master. I marvel at how much abuse Jesus took and yet he was always able to control himself and keep himself together even in the toughest, cruelest situations.

How many of us waste so much precious time reflecting on the hurts and slights that we feel have been inflicted upon us? Why do we so often dwell on the negative and let it control our emotions therefore taking over our lives? We have been commanded to live in peace and turn the other cheek. We are supposed to be kind and not speak coarsely or rude to the very people who we feel have wronged us. We need to learn to take the high road as sons and daughters of God almighty. We aspire to the higher calling and are assured that a heavenly reward awaits us. Let's try and do as Jesus did. We have two cheeks, let's try and turn one now and then.

- Mike Lisle
