GRACE

Worshipping Serving Fellowship

WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

FACE TO FACE: BACK TO BACK

Did you know that what you say to a Christian is just as important as what you say about them?

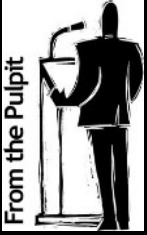

Peter says in 1 Peter 3:8, “have a unity of mind, sympathy, brotherly love, a tender heart, and a humble mind.” When thinking of how we should treat one another face to face and back to back (when they aren’t around), we should refer to this verse.

Gossip is an easy way for us to fall short in Peter’s verse. Sometimes we don’t even realize we are doing it. We may love someone, but when they aren’t around, we may lift ourselves up by saying a simple demeaning remark about them. This lifts us up and lowers them down. Sadly, we don’t think of the possible harm, because the person isn’t there.

Colossians 3:16 says, “Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly.” The things we say matter. If we make an extremely critical, seemingly objective (to us), jab at someone that isn’t even present, is the word of Christ dwelling in us richly? If we continue to the next sentence in Colossians, Paul tells us how it looks to have the “word of Christ dwelling in us richly.” He says, “Teach and lift up one another in wisdom, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, with thankfulness in your hearts to God.”

Arrogance can cause people to be two-faced: speaking sweetly to our face, and poorly behind our back. When we hear that our brother or sister has done this, it takes the wind out of our sails, and can cause us to give up.

What is the lesson? Demeaning words are NEVER good. They don’t push us to do more or try harder, but to simply throw our hands up and say, “I give up.” We should uplift and encourage each other face to face and back to back. Ask yourself, do my actions and my words support my brothers and sisters? I hope they do, because we support you. - Nathan Keller

Wednesday – Join us on Wednesdays as we go through Matthew. Next time we'll read about the baptism of Jesus by John the Baptist.

AM – Next week John Jewell will be at the pulpit.

PM – In the afternoon John will be telling us about the status of Great Expectations Malawi (GEM). Don't miss out!
