

The Westworth Word

WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

“You Telling Me?”

Paul writes in Philippians 4: 4

“Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again: Rejoice!”

As we have been studying Philippians on Thursday nights, when I come across this verse I find it odd that this verse is in this book? I mean basically the Philippian congregation is in pretty good shape. Except for the one problem that Euodia and Syntyche were having everything was mostly “okay.” They were the one group that was watching out for Paul by sending him money and people to be with him and care for him while he was in prison. From my viewpoint, if I were in the Church at Philippi, I would not need to be told to “Rejoice.” Things were going so well that they should all be rejoicing already.

What if Paul was writing his letter to me (Dean) today? Considering everything that has gone on in the last six months and even the last few weeks, Paul would need to tell me to “Rejoice.” So, the question is, “Why did Paul need to tell the Philippians to “Rejoice?” I do not know this answer, but I do have a few thoughts about this.

There are a few people we know that no matter how bad things are and no matter what happens to them, they have “Joy” in their heart.

There are also some people that when things are good then there is much joy and happiness. But when things are bad, then things are bad and there is “no joy in Mudville,” if you know what I mean.

Then we have those people that it does not matter if things are going well or not so well, it is always doom and gloom. Even after we receive from God blessing after blessing, we complain and moan. We seem to not to be able to find any reason to have Joy.

Brothers and sisters, I confess to you that I am afraid I belong in this last group. I have seen God’s miracles in my life over and over again and yet I need Paul to tell me to Rejoice. I urge each of you to pray with me that no matter what happens to us, good or bad, that we will have joy in our heart because we have the greatest gift there is. Salvation. No matter what.
