

The Westworth Word

WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."
- Matt. 18:2

Change

I often wonder what Moses thought about during his life. Moses spent his childhood as a Prince, only to find out that his biological family was the slaves that worked for him. He runs away to the desert, to find God sending him back to Egypt to free his people. He frees his people, and then he wanders the desert for 40 years. Change after change after change.

Then I think about Jonah, and the changes in his life. He was told to go to a land that no one wanted to go to, and when he said no, he gets swallowed by a whale. If that isn't a change in plans, I don't know what is!

The Bible is full of stories of change. It seems that people in general, even in Biblical times are hesitant to change. People do what they can to avoid it- run away, make excuses, etc., but when it comes down to it, things change anyway.

This past year (8 months really) have held lots of change for me. When mom passed away in January, I told myself that was it. I would deal with that one thing, and nothing else would change. Then COVID hit and I was forced to change how I taught my students. Then I was recruited for a new job in my school district. Then I decided to buy a home and move.

Any of these changes individually would have been a lot, but together they seem overwhelming. What hasn't changed? God. He is always there. He is always providing. He is always loving. He is constant. He is forever.

“Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like the shifting shadows.” James 1:17

While change is a part of everyday life, God is always there.
