WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

Keep Your Windows Open

When we think of Daniel, most of us think of the lions' den. But he had a lot more problems than that. Daniel had been deported and was being held captive in Babylon. He was held there away from his family and his friends.

Many of us can appreciate his situation. At times, we too have been away from our homes and all that we care about. We too live in a "crooked and perverse generation". His situation speaks to our condition, when we must work, and sometimes live, with others who do not share our values and our concerns. How do we survive in this environment?

Throughout his captivity, Daniel never forgot who he was. It was his custom to keep the windows of his roof chamber open toward Jerusalem: Dan 6:10. He lived in Babylon; he dreamed of Jerusalem. His body was in Babylon; his heart in Jerusalem. It would have been easy to lose the vision, to shut the windows and to give up. A weak man would have. Daniel was no weak man.

The key to survival in a discouraging situation is to keep your windows open. Do not allow temporal or worldly things to blind you to eternal truths. Keep your eyes set on heaven, regardless of where you find yourself on earth: Col 3:1-4.

Prayer is a window to keep open. It will help you retain a personal relationship with God. Frequent, fervent prayer to the Father will strengthen your resolve. Do not quit praying.

Bible study is another window. Store God's word in your heart to prevent sin: Psalms 119:11. Drink deeply from the fount of truth. Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly: Col 3:16.

The fellowship of saints is a vital window to keep open. All Christians, strong or weak in their faith needs encouragement, which is a primary reason for the assembly.

When circumstances threaten to overwhelm you in this life, when survival seems impossible, remember Daniel. Look toward Jerusalem. Keep your windows open.
