WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

The Reset Button

One of the wonderful qualities of sleep is the ability to reset yourself in the morning. After a tough day isn't it nice to be able to go to sleep and wake up the next day with a brighter outlook, maybe even a new perspective on whatever you were dealing with. When I was younger that seemed to be easier than now, but that ability to start over has always been a blessing, kind of like a breath of fresh air. It allowed you to let go, take a deep breath and continue with a positive attitude. Recently I had surgery on my hand. When I came up out of the anesthesia I felt relaxed, I felt at peace and it was as if I knew everything was going to be ok. It was the kind of sleep that lets you reset and begin again with hope and clarity.

I have written these words today to remind you all that one day we will all go to sleep for the final time. We will close our eyes on this earthly life and we will wake up to a completely new existence. I can only imagine the thrill it's going to be to open our new spiritual eyes and behold things that the apostle Paul said were inexpressible. I truly believe we are going to be shocked at the beauty that awaits us in heaven. Not only the physical majesty that appeals to the eye but the wonderful quality of perfect peace. No anxiety, no worry, no trouble. I've always loved waking up with a chance to reset. We will know that feeling completely and perfectly if we remain in the Lord. Remember my friends, it's only a sleep away. - Mike Lisle
