WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."
- Matt. 18:2

Sing To The Lord

I wonder if some of the songs we've been singing for years and years that we still have no idea what the words mean. Or, that we simply don't pay attention to the meanings of the words we sing. I know I sometimes fall in that category. We get so wrapped up in the music and how it sounds that we lose focus on the words. And then we lose focus on actually applying the words.

When we sing today, try to focus on why we're singing. Are we doing it for our own pleasure? Or are we singing for the Lord? Ephesians says, "speaking to yourselves in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your hearts to the Lord" (5:19).

It doesn't matter what the music sounds like. It doesn't matter how fast or how slow the song leader is going. What matters is that we are singing for the Lord. The meaning of the music is in the words and in our hearts. Sing out and sing loud because we are pleasing the Lord with our voices. "And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus" (Col. 3:17).

Curtis Dunson has been posting a wonderful series his father, Randy Dunson, has been doing on the history and meaning of some of our most beloved hymns. It's a wonderfully insightful series with interesting facts that aren't readily known. Check it out!

AM – Social Distancing Service 10am simultaneous Facebook Live Streaming on the church’s Facebook page. Come hear Dean Corder speak on July 26th and John Jewell on August 2nd.

Sunday’s Scripture Reading: Nehemiah 6:5-9 NIV

⁵ Then, the fifth time, Sanballat sent his aide to me with the same message, and in his hand was an unsealed letter ⁶ in which was written:

“It is reported among the nations—and Geshem says it is true—that you and the Jews are plotting to revolt, and therefore you are building the wall. Moreover, according to these reports you are about to become their king ⁷ and have even appointed prophets to make this proclamation about you in Jerusalem: ‘There is a king in Judah!’ Now this report will get back to the king; so come, let us meet together.”

⁸ I sent him this reply: “Nothing like what you are saying is happening; you are just making it up out of your head.”

⁹ They were all trying to frighten us, thinking, “Their hands will get too weak for the work, and it will not be completed.”

But I prayed, “Now strengthen my hands.”

If you or someone you know needs groceries or necessity items please let an Elder or the church office know and we will help.

Please continue to pray for those that are sick and in need.
