

The Westworth Word

WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."

“What Now”

I have found myself asking this question a lot this year. At first, usually, I don't know the answer. Sometimes I don't want to even imagine the answer. To say “this has been a strange year” is the biggest understatement of the year. In fact, we have talked about this subject and written about this subject so much that I have promised myself never to write about it again. But here again, I find myself, again, writing about the oddity of 2020, again, and asking the question “What Now?”.

I imagine that the Children of Israel asked the “What Now” question a lot of times also. As they watched the plagues of Egypt, they could have asked that question. When they had their back to the sea and the Egyptians blocking their way out, I'm pretty sure they were asking that question. When Moses was on the mountain talking to God and getting the Ten Commandments, I know some these guys were asking that question. The story goes on and on and it seems like every time they turned around, they came to a crossroad and given the choice to make a decision. Sometimes they handled that experience well and other times not.

Here we are again at a crossroad for our congregation. What do we do now? Well, we could make a decision like the Children of Israel did when Moses was on the mountain and say “We need to go back to Egypt. We want things to be the way things used to be.” Or we could be like them when God told them to go into “The Promise Land” and He would conquer the land for them but they decided to send in spies and believed it would be too difficult for them. These were obviously unwise decisions.

So, what should we do now? First, we pray fervently for God's guidance. Then we move forward. We go in the direction God guides us. It may be different. It may be scary. It may not be easy. But God's way is the only way.
