WELCOME VISITORS!

We are delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If you are a guest, please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the offering plate when it is passed. Prayer requests can also be made on the other side of the card.

For us communion isn't only about his death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill; eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

We invite all who believe and are baptized in Jesus to share the Lord's Supper with us in remembrance of his great sacrifice and triumph on our behalf.

Plug In For where two or three are gathered in my name, there am I among them."
- Matt. 18:2

Distractions

As many of you know I am performing Hannah and Samuels wedding next Saturday. They asked me to do this in January, so I have had plenty of time to prepare. Of course, I have thought about it a lot and I have taken a few notes here and there, but the majority of the work had not been done until this past week. I blame it on too many distractions. There is always something else to do. A house to clean, dishes to do, laundry, yard work, and of course, find a job. Sometimes I would go to the church building to get away from the house and try to do work there, but usually I would find another form of distraction.

Finally, I went out of town for a few days this week to get away from as much as I could of my normal distractions. so I could possibly get this task done. And eventually it worked. What I did find out in all of this is this. You can get away from everything else, but you cannot run away from yourself. It all goes back to that old saying “Wherever you go, there you are.”

I find this also to be true in our walk with God. Sometimes there are lots distractions that appear to keep us away from studying and meditating on the word of God, or spending time with God in prayer. We spend so much time with some type of noise going on with the TV, or the radio, or even just our phones so that we won't have time to focus on God. We could get rid of all these things but I'm afraid that we will just find something else to use. I believe what we need to do is to pray that God to give us the desire, dedication, and “the want to”, to get closer to God. And with time the distractions will start getting out of the way.
