WELCOME VISITORS!

We believe God is delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor's card. Any Prayer requests you may have can also be made on the other side of the card. At the close of service, please put your card in the contribution box at the exit.

During the service today we will take time to celebrate what we call communion. This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus' death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill: eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

Looking Ahead

It seems everywhere I look that people are saying or writing about the excitement that 2020 is over and 2021 will come and all our troubles will be over. Part of me does not understand why we stay up late (at least some of us) one night a year and at midnight we yell “Happy New Year!” Sometimes it makes no sense to me. It is just a moment in time like any other moment. I wonder why we do not get excited about other moments in time.

Wouldn't it be nice if we would get excited about that moment in time when the clock strikes 10:00 am on Sunday and we have the opportunity to gather together with our brothers and sisters and worship our God and Savior. Or celebrate those moments when God gives us the opportunity to serve others in his name.

I know, part of me understands why we celebrate the end of 2020 and look forward to 2021. There are things that I experienced in 2020 that I do not wish on anyone. But do not forget there are many good things that happened in 2020. I gained a wonderful daughter-in-law. We got to witness and celebrate as Max Lisle baptized his sweet wife Sarah. These are just a few things that our families were able to experience.

The year 2021 brings us hope. It is an opportunity for us to look at our lives and ask the question “How can I be better?” or “What can I do to serve God?” or . . . . .

Let's take this opportunity to examine ourselves fully and honestly. To pray to God and ask him to please show us how we can be better servants. And then act on it. We are going to have our challenges in 2021 but let's not ignore the opportunity to help grow the Kingdom.

Romans 7:14-25<sup>a</sup> (NIV)

<sup>14</sup> We know that the law is spiritual; but I am unspiritual, sold as a slave to sin. <sup>15</sup> I do not understand what I do. For what I want to do I do not do, but what I hate I do. <sup>16</sup> And if I do what I do not want to do, I agree that the law is good. <sup>17</sup> As it is, it is no longer I myself who do it, but it is sin living in me. <sup>18</sup> For I know that good itself does not dwell in me, that is, in my sinful nature. <sup>19</sup> For I have the desire to do what is good, but I cannot carry it out. <sup>20</sup> Now if I do what I do not want to do, it is no longer I who do it, but it is sin living in me that does it.

<sup>21</sup> So I find this law at work: Although I want to do good, evil is right there with me. <sup>22</sup> For in my inner being I delight in God's law; <sup>23</sup> but I see another law at work in me, waging war against the law of my mind and making me a prisoner of the law of sin at work within me. <sup>24</sup> What a wretched man I am! Who will rescue me from this body that is subject to death? <sup>25</sup> Thanks be to God, who delivers me through Jesus Christ our Lord!
