WELCOME VISITORS!

We believe God is delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor's card. Any Prayer requests you may have can also be made on the other side of the card. At the close of service, please put your card in the contribution box at the exit.

During the service today we will take time to celebrate what we call communion. This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus' death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill: eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

Let God Do The Work

The new snow we had the other day was so beautiful to see. It's white, majestic glory has not been around here for a while and it speaks to the wonder of God's world. We live in a beautiful world if we only allow ourselves to see it. There are so many places that show the handiwork of God in nature. The glorious snow-capped mountains, the forests of magnificent trees that stretch up to the heavens, the sky filled with diamonds of light that exist so far away that it doesn't even make sense.

In a world with such beauty and evidence of God's direct involvement we still find it so convenient to wonder where is God in our lives. We find it easy to yell out, "why me!" It must be in our DNA, I guess, to believe that the problems we have are unique and so formidable that no one else could possibly understand them. I realize we live in a somewhat turbulent time and yet I almost want to laugh at the idea that you and I have had it so bad. I choose to believe that our God is closer to us than what many would acknowledge. I choose to believe that he is still in control and knows exactly what he is doing. Finally, I choose to believe my citizenship is actually somewhere else and that he is able to deliver me and deliver for me in any and every circumstance.

Do we live in a somewhat troubled time? Absolutely. But I would ask you, "who hasn't throughout history?" The real question is, "do you believe he has not only the power but the desire to deliver you?" If you are able to answer yes, my advice to you is congratulations, now calm down and let God do his work in your life. He created a beautiful, amazing world and universe. He can do wonderful things for you also. JUST LET HIM.
