WELCOME VISITORS!

We believe God is delighted that you have come to worship the Lord with us today. If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor's card. Any Prayer requests you may have can also be made on the other side of the card. At the close of service, please put your card in the contribution box at the exit.

During the service today we will take time to celebrate what we call communion. This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus' death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill: eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

Trust

This past week, I had conversations with some of the high school seniors I work with about what their plans are for after college. Since I work in the world of Special Education, these seniors do not have the normal path of going to college. As I talked with the seniors about their options, several of them expressed wanting to stay in High School. The world “Post High School” was scary to them and they wanted to stay where they were comfortable. I spent the time talking with them reassuring them that things would be ok. They needed to believe that they were ready to move on, and needed to trust that those around them will support them.

The Bible is full of stories of people who were comfortable with their life and were hesitant to make a change. Jonah ran from his future, literally ran the opposite direction. Moses doubted his abilities to do what God had planned for him. My personal favorite story, Esther, thought there was no way she would be able to save her people without dying. Eventually they all completed their task and were better for it, but it took them being able to trust that God would be there for them.

As I go through life, it is important for me to remember that God is always there. God always has a plan for us, and all we need to do is be willing to embrace that plan. We need to trust God to support us when we need it.

“Perhaps this is the moment for which you were created.” -Esther 4:14

THEME: Risk for the Kingdom

What's on your mind?....

Do you have some thoughts you would like to share with everyone?

You never know when someone else may need just what you have to say. Perhaps you found an approach to an issue that works for you or maybe you've found a particular verse that speaks to you in a way that could also be uplifting to someone else. Your thoughts could be just what we need for an article in this bulletin.

Your input for bulletin articles is Welcomed.
