Fellowshipping

Thank you for coming to worship the Lord with us today. If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor's card. Any Prayer requests you may have can also be made on the other side of the card. At the close of service, please put your card in the contribution box at the exit.

During the service today we will take time to celebrate what we call communion. This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus' death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of the hope we have that God will one day fulfill: eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

His Way

(The article below was written in February, but thanks to the arctic visitation, publication was delayed.)

Sunday, February 7, 2021, 2:00 pm

Sunday services are over and, once again, I had missed worshipping God with my brethren. I had gotten a bulletin for today “hot off the presses” – as it were – from our Secretary’s office on Friday. She said the article was “really great”. But, as usual, I hadn’t read it until now.

First a “thank you” to Mike Lisle for sharing the story of their neighbor. As I read the last paragraph, out loud, my emotions came to the surface. I had my TV on channel 2-2, listening to the beautiful music that was being broadcast. The song was “Have Thine Own Way, Lord”. The realization (understanding) of that song sank into my being. He didn’t ask us for permission to have “His Way”. As Creator, Designer, and Maker of all that we know, these words became more REAL to me than possibly EVER BEFORE.

Who am I to deny in any way, what God has ordered? He designed and knows all that I must have and be in order to find Perfect Peace?

I am nothing, and yet, Jesus, Son of God, DIED FOR ME.

May God’s mercy be on us all!

In Christian Love,
Jim Allen

Cause to Celebrate

The 45 children who attend the Malawi School are excited to get with Snoden and Susan again. All will be getting new uniforms soon. Snoden is enthusiastically posting videos to DonorSee for this need. Please always remember to pray for God's continued blessings on this work.
