

Westworth Church of Christ

WORSHIPING SERVING FELLOWSHIPING

WELCOME VISITORS! Thank you for joining us today to worship the Lord. If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor’s card found on the back of each pew. Your prayer requests may also be made on the flip side of the card. At the close of service, please put your card in the contribution box at the front of the auditorium as you exit. Or you can hand it to any member.

During the service we will celebrate communion. (Sacraments are available on the table in the entry foyer.) This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from the fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus’ death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of our hope that God will fulfill his promise of eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

BREATHING HIS NAME

The piece below came to my attention via Facebook and my son, Collin Parriette. He saw it on Sharon Paxton's facebook page—Sharon is the wife of a past minister at the Springtown Church of Christ. (Sharon had received it from one of her friends and did not know it's true origin.) Collin and Chrissy consider the Paxton's dear friends and mentors. I hope you find it as uplifting as I did. Sherry Yates

There was a moment when Moses had the nerve to ask God what his name is. God was gracious enough to answer, and the name he gave is recorded in the original Hebrew as YHWH.

Over time we've arbitrarily added an "a" and an "e" in there to get YaHWeH, presumably because we have a preference for vowels. But scholars and rabis have noted that the letters YHWH represent breathing sounds, or aspirated consonants. When pronounced without intervening vowels, it actually sounds like breathing. YH (inhale): WH (exhale).

So a baby's first cry, his first breath, speaks the name of God. A deep sigh calls His name – or a groan or gasp that is too heavy for mere words. Even an atheist would speak His name unaware that their very breathe is giving constant acknowledgment to God. Likewise, a person leaves this earth with their last breath, when God's name is no longer filling their lungs.

So when I can't utter anything else, is my cry calling out His name? Being alive means I speak His name constantly. Is it heard the loudest when I'm the quietest?

In sadness, we breathe heavy sighs. In joy, our lungs feel almost like they will burst. In fear we hold our breath and have to be told to breathe slowly to help us calm down. When we're about to do something hard, we take a deep breath to find our courage.

When I think about it, breathing is giving him praise. Even in the hardest moments!

This is so beautiful and fills me with emotion every time I grasp the thought. God chose to give himself a name that we can't help but speak every moment we're alive. All of us, always, everywhere. Waking, sleeping, breathing, with the name of God on our lips.

HELP STILL NEEDED!

Still in need of articles for the bulletin. Your thoughts and stories of inspiration or encouragement are always welcomed. You never know when what you may consider inconsequential could be just what a brother or sister needs to ‘hear’ in order to make it through their own challenge.

Thank you to Susan Flaherty and Blair Montgomery to taking the reins on the Phil Simco Chili Cook

OPPORTUNITY TO SERVE

Thank you to Wanda Reynolds who has agreed to coordinate and re-establish our “greeters” program. Members who will remain in the foyer, welcome members and visitors as they arrive and pass out bulletins.

If you would like to be part of this effort , please let Wanda know so she can add your name to the schedule.

This is a great way to get to know everyone—if you don’t already, as well as serve your brothers and sisters.
