

The Westworth
Word

WELCOME VISITORS! Thank you for joining us today to worship the Lord. If this is your first visit here, please honor us by filling out a visitor's card found on the back of each pew. Your prayer requests may also be made on the flip side of the card. At the close of service, please put your card in the contribution box at the front of the auditorium as you exit. Or you can hand it to any member.

During the service we will celebrate communion. (Sacraments are available on the table in the entry foyer.) This is a time that we partake of unleavened bread and juice from the fruit of the vine to remind us what Jesus has done for us. Communion is not only about Jesus' death, but his resurrection and triumph over death and sin. His resurrection is the source of our hope that God will fulfill his promise of eternal life through Jesus the Christ.

Whether you have “natural” children or love and help nurture other’s , or even if your nurturing spirit guides you to be that special animal care-giver, this day is set aside in the U.S. to celebrate you. Your love and care to those you “mother” is worth celebrating.

Luke 2:51

⁵¹ Then he went down to Nazareth with them and was obedient to them. But his mother treasured all these things in her heart.

Proverbs 1:8-9

⁸ Listen, my son, to your father’s instruction and do not forsake your mother’s teaching.
⁹ They are a garland to grace your head
and a chain to adorn your neck.

Proverbs 31:25-30

²⁵ She is clothed with strength and dignity;
she can laugh at the days to come.
²⁶ She speaks with wisdom,
and faithful instruction is on her tongue.
²⁷ She watches over the affairs of her household and does not eat the bread of idleness.
²⁸ Her children arise and call her blessed;
her husband also, and he praises her:
²⁹ “Many women do noble things,
but you surpass them all.”
³⁰ Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting;
but a woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.

Proverbs 23:22-25

²² Listen to your father, who gave you life,
and do not despise your mother when she is old.
²³ Buy the truth and do not sell it—wisdom, instruction and insight as well.
²⁴ The father of a righteous child has great joy;
a man who fathers a wise son rejoices in him.
²⁵ May your father and mother rejoice;
may she who gave you birth be joyful!

Colossians 3:15-17

¹⁵ Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, since as members of one body you were called to peace. And be thankful. ¹⁶ Let the message of Christ dwell among you richly as you teach and admonish one another with all wisdom through psalms, hymns, and songs from the Spirit, singing to God with gratitude in your hearts. ¹⁷ And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.

A celebration of

*and Andy's early graduation!

As much as we hate to see them go, we want to be sure to celebrate all they have done and all God has planned for them in the future.

Bring a card with your wishes and prayers for their success and happiness on this next step of their walk with God.

We will also take this time to celebrate Andy's early High-School graduation.

Be sure to mark your calendar for this day of joy and celebration (and reluctant good-byes).
